Bert C., the only son of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. King, of East Riverside, died last Friday morning at his home of pneumonia. The funeral was held on Sunday at 2 p. m. at the house; burial at Groton. A large number of Woodmen, of which order he was a social member, were in attendance, also a very large attendance of both his and the family's friends and neighbors. Bert had grown up here from a small boy since coming from Michigan with his parents in 1881. He was about 30 years of age. 4 - 27 - 1906
